Eulogy

Today, as we stand united in grief and in love, we are here to celebrate the life of Lucy Nzisa Kibue-Tutu, a daughter, a sister, a wife, a mother, a friend, a confidant. Her departure has left an irreplaceable void, yet her spirit, her laughter, and her memories continue to surround us. Lucy was a beacon of light in our lives. Her name was not just a moniker(light), but a testament to the vibrant, inspirational life she led. She was a woman of courage, of compassion, of boundless love. Her spirit was indomitable, her heart, an ocean of kindness.

Her laughter was infectious, her spirit, unyielding. Lucy faced life's trials with courage that was awe-inspiring, and a determination that was unstoppable. She taught everyone the true meaning of resilience, the power of hope, and the beauty of life. As we stand here today, we are not just mourning the loss of our beloved Lucy, but celebrating the life she lived, the love she shared and the dreams she chased. Lucy you will always be remembered as a beacon of love, of strength and of inspiration. Your spirit will continue to guide us, your memories will continue to comfort us, your love will continue to surround us. Rest in eternal peace, dear Lucy. You will be missed, but your spirit, your love, and your light will forever shine bright in our hearts.

EARLY LIFE

Lucy Nzisa Kibue was born on December 21, 1987, at 6:00 am at Kenyatta National Hospital to Elizabeth Nduku Kibue and the late Michael Kibue Kamau. Among her four siblings Anita Kibue, Angela Kibue and June Kibue she was the third born.

She was baptized at OLV Makadara, received her First Holy Communion and Confirmation at The Holy Family Basilica.

EDUCATION & PROFESSION

Lucy attended Mary Immaculate Nursery School, Bahati, then proceeded to Loreto Convent Valley Road for her primary school education, and finally completed her secondary education at St. Lucie Kiriri Secondary School in 2006.

In the year 2007 She joined Kenya School of Professional Studies to pursue a Diploma in Public Relations. She furthered her education at The University of Nairobi in the year 2013, where she graduated with First-class honours in Journalism and Media Studies, Development Communication. She was presently pursuing a Master's Degree in Media/Multimedia and Digital Communication at Liverpool John Moores University.

In January 2012, she started her career at Rhino Ark Kenya Charitable Trust as a Graduate Trainee in Public Relations. She advanced through the ranks in multiple organizations, including Dotsavvy, Creative VMLY&R, Regus, and Zilojo Limited. Upon her demise, she was the Business Unit Head at Creative FCB. Lucy was a woman of extraordinary intellect, of unwavering dedication, and of boundless kindness. Her work was not just a job, it was a passion, a mission, a calling. Her professional accomplishments were as vast as they were impressive. She was a visionary, a trailblazer, a leader. Her strategies were innovative, her decisions, insightful, her leadership, inspirational hence her achievements in her career life.

FAMILY

They say when you meet the love of your life, time stops, and that's true. What they don't tell you is that when it starts again, it moves extra fast to catch up. Lucy met the love of her life Alex Tutu in 2014. They had a beautiful marriage ceremony at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church on the 12th of February 2021. The two were blessed with a beautiful daughter, Ari Tutu on the 8th of July 2017. Her presence was a source of comfort and joy, her laughter a melody that filled our home, and her wisdom a guiding light in our lives.

ILLNESS

I suppose its not quite accurate to call the death of someone who lived with cancer unexpected, but Lucy's death was unexpected for us. For nearly one year, Lucy waged an excruciating battle with stomach cancer. It came as much more of a shock when we learned of her illness. Always the fighter, we had every confidence that she would soundly defeat the cancer that threatened her. While this has been a cruel and harrowing journey, we know and firmly believe that she is in Heaven free from pain.

Lucy has been released from a body that has been ailing for some time now. On Tuesday at 6:13 pm, the heavens opened for Lucy and she was immediately ushered into the presence of her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. As we bid her farewell, let us remember her not with tears but with smiles. For in our hearts, she blooms eternally, a beacon of love, joy and light, guiding us through the journey of life.

Lucy your physical presence may be absent, but your spirit lives on. Your teachings continue to guide us, your memories continue to inspire us, your legacy continues to shine. Rest in peace, dearest Lucy. You will always be remembered, always be missed, and forever be treasured. Your spirit, your wisdom, and your love will forever shine in our hearts.

Alex Tribute

IT IS WELL.

Lucy Nzisa Kibue-Tutu, woman of my dreams.

This is tough but as you told me, “we must stay still and be strong.”

I would want to tell, the story of how we met; the year was 2014, and as I walked into the reception of our office then; I happened to see you sitting there, you had come for an interview and I thought to myself, “what a beautiful lady.”

I didn't find the courage to say hi but I rooted for you to get the job, so that I could see you again 😊

I will cherish all the memories we had, be still and know that God is there,

A few weeks later, to my delight, God did answer my prayers and on that day; you were to sit next to me; for a few hours as they located a sitting area for you. Again, you can all imagine my excitement. A double blessing 😊 they say, life has sweet moments and that was surely one of them.

On that day, there was a birthday in the office and I happened to bring you the piece of cake. I also gave you an induction guide on how to write a brief to the creatives; welcoming you to agency life.

In that very moment, right there and then, I knew that one day we would be married and I told this to a friend. In the months to come, we began spending more time together, getting to know each other better with each passing day. There are countless stories I could share now, and those memories are all I am left with.

In December of that same year, true to your style, you called me for a ‘small meeting’ to seek clarity on the status of our relationship.

At that moment, I told you that you were my cheerleader and I was yours, and that I had found the one. I can still vividly recall the beautiful smile you had when I said those words.

One of the many qualities I admired about you was your unique outlook on life. You had a way of seeing things differently and making everyone around you feel comfortable. You were both affable and discerning. We shared our dreams and aspirations, often painting what our future would look like together.

In 2017 July, 8th we were blessed and welcomed Ari Tutu Muiruri. Though we were both scared, again you reminded me; it is well. Let us remain calm and strong.

We built a home together, one filled with love, joy, and the strength to be brave.

Family meant everything to you, and I am grateful for how you brought both our families together so seamlessly.

We had our lives challenges but in the midst of those challenges, you remained steadfast and unwavering. Where I was loud, you were quiet and gentle, when I was worried, you remained calm and level headed - the voice of reason.

Lucy, you were truly a wonderful gift to experience.

As I write this, I am trying to find the joke that would put a smile on everyone's faces. But it is the one time I have no jokes to share. Though it breaks my heart, I am glad you're now resting. You fought bravely and courageously.

I will cherish all the memories we shared, and since we never stuck to tradition; as I end this, I would want to read a message from you to Ari.

We used to say this to her every single morning and now you get to say it to her one last time through me:

Ari Tutu Muiruri, you are loved. You are blessed, you are beautiful, you are intelligent, you will accomplish great things in life, I will always be with you, be brave, have courage and live life to the fullest, my love.

Lucy Nzisa Kibue-Tutu, there has been no greater gift life has given me, than the gift of you. I love you.

Rest well, woman of my dreams.

Mother

Lucy, Uti, Keruss, Mama Ari, as I so fondly called you. Lots of times, losing you is the greatest loss a human being can experience.

My beautiful Lucy, I hope as you are looking down from Heaven that you are FINALLY able to see how much you were adored, admired, and so loved.

Your gentle soul and spirit touched many and they are deeply affected by your exiting the stage at 36. These were awesome years which I will cherish.

Never ever did I think that God would decide to call you home so soon. It has been many long, hard, agonizing battles for the last one year and you fought like a warrior every step of the way.

The day you left and gained your wings my heart broke into many pieces. I wish you could have stayed longer but Heaven needed you.

A limb has fallen from the family tree, the pain is deep, the void immeasurable. But let's take solace in the fact that during your time on earth, my beloved Lucy lived fully. You loved deeply and made every moment count.

Lala salama, Tutaonana baadaye.

Mum

Sister

As we gather to celebrate and Honor the life of our beloved Keruce, this has been the hardest thing we have ever had to deal with. Our hearts are so heavy, full of questions especially of WHAT IF's, but it is well. We stand before you to share some memories about the most incredible sister anyone could ever have.

Keruce was an extraordinary person. She was a loving daughter, a cherished friend, and a remarkable sister. To us, she was not just our sibling, but our confidant, our role model, and our best friend. You can imagine her dealing with three other personalities...weeeehhh plus her mothers hahahaha, child she was a strong one. Her presence brought joy, laughter, and warmth into our lives, and her memory will continue to do so.

One of my earliest memories of keruce was her infectious laughter, and her stern look when she was pissed. No matter what the situation was, she always had a way of finding humour and bringing light into our lives. Her laughter was a source of comfort and happiness, and it had the power to brighten even the darkest days.

Our sister had an unwavering strength especially during her illness journey. She had a way of hiding her pain and always looked at life differently. She never let anything diminish her spirit. Especially keeping at bay visitors who had a pity look during hospital visits. Her resilience taught us the importance of staying strong in the face of adversity and always looking for the silver lining, and never take anything for granted.

Keruce thank you for the Love, the laughter,
and the life lessons.

She was the planner, the creative thinker, keruce had a way of making a vision into a reality. She was a super mama, despite her illness she still had time to go through Ari's homework, plan her pick-ups and drop off, planned her outfits for different occasions, planned out Ari's birthday, still made it to Ari's teacher meeting.... yup that was our sister.

Ari will be our constant reminder of you, she's you kabisaa. And we promise we will always be very active in her life, though your shoe will be hard to fill but we got you Ari Tutu. Thank you for bringing a brother we never had Alex into our lives. We promise to keep the bond between Us, so Alex brace yourself for our unwavering love, constant visits and phone calls. Tuko Pamoja.

Tributes

Keruce thank you for the Love, the laughter, and the life lessons. We will carry your memory in our hearts forever and strive to Honor you in all that we do.

In closing, we would like to share a quote that reminds us of our sister: "A sister is a gift to the heart, a friend to the spirit, a golden thread to the meaning of life." Keruce, your love and your legacy will live on in all of us. Thank you for everything.

Penda weve sana sana.

Mother-In-law

Lucy my daughter, when you were introduced to me by Alex as a special friend that Sunday afternoon, I felt in my heart that indeed you were a very special girl, we had a lovely afternoon. This was the beginning of a special relationship and I always hoped to see you often. I remember jokingly hinting to Alex we should look for goats. I am glad it came to pass and ever since we have been best of friends. Your warm smile, wisdom and patience inspired me and I knew my son was blessed to have you as his wife. We talked everyday and when I didn't call, I'd always get a call from you or Ari to ask if I was okay, Lucy my girl, my family and I loved you.

When Alex introduced you to my late mum, your cucu, she said "thùmbì enà mùtùmià mwègà ènà goro jègà." You loved and encouraged me and together we had many dreams, we shared about the love of God and prayed together. When you fell sick, I assured you God was in control and even in the sickness he will never leave you alone. You were in His hands even in sickness. It's been a tough journey and seeing you put a brave fight was encouraging to me.

You assured me you had a personal relationship with Jesus and it was well, that gave me hope. As I mourn I know I shall see you again as you knew Jesus, who is the way, the truth and the light (John 14: 6). You're now in His hands forever. Rest in peace, Lucy my daughter. You were brave and you fought a good fight of Faith, I'll miss you but you'll always be in my heart.

You made an impact in my life. Again, Rest in Peace Lucy my daughter.

I'll always love you.

Brother-In-law (Allan)

Losing a sister

Away from the flesh but with us in spirit, your warmth and bubbly- self is a memory I will carry with me forever.

Looking back, we had pleasant interactions every time we met and with time Tutu introduced you to me as his girlfriend.

Going forward I also introduced you to Cate who eventually became your sister.

I hold on to the precious memories of the wonderful times we shared, especially the last two occasions during Aris' birthday and Christmas.

I could go on and on but all in all, I give thanks to God for the times we shared..

Rest Easy Lucy..

Alex's Family (Capt. Kingori)

King'ori Kanyungu on behalf of Alex's family:

I had the privilege and honor of leading the delegation to Kitengela, here at the family home for, 'uthoni' – the customary bride price negotiations.

I remember that day vividly, it was such a beautiful ceremony and everything went on smoothly and effortlessly. It seemed to mirror the grace and harmony that Lucy brought into our family.

Soon after, I had the pleasure of getting to know Lucy a little bit more as we engaged during the build up to the wedding. I noted her charisma, humility, eloquence and her remarkable ability to engage with everyone fully and attentively.

I can testify today, that indeed, Lucy was always smiling. On the many times she came home for a birthday party or Sunday lunch, I never once saw her not wearing her signature smile. This is a clear testament to the good values instilled in her during her upbringing.

I also saw Alex blossom into the man he is today and I believe Lucy played a key role in that transformation.

Right before she left for India, we went to see Lucy and I was deeply inspired by her courage and positive attitude. In the face of adversity, she remained brave and strong. It is sad and painful to bury our daughter at such a young age, but we thank God for the time he gave us with her and for allowing her to be a part of our family.

The Kibue family will forever remain a part of us in many ways, we not only share a granddaughter – Ari, but share a lifetime bond, forged through cherished memories, over the years.

May Lucy's legacy of courage, love and joy continue to inspire us all.

Rest well our beloved daughter.

Aunties

Our dear beloved niece Lucy, how do we even begin writing this tribute to you. This is hard extremely hard. It has hit us in our most vulnerable spots. Your death has left us bereft of any words to explain what we are feeling. We come together in this moment of profound sorrow and reflection to celebrate you, our beautiful Lucy. We are also reminded of the quote by Helen Keller "What we have once enjoyed deeply we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us." Today we also celebrate the enduring impact she has had on our lives.

Our beautiful baby Uti as we fondly called her came into this world like a burst of sunlight, radiating warmth, joy, and hope. From her earliest days, she exhibited a zest for life that was utterly infectious. Her smile could light up the darkest room, and her laughter was a melody that lifted the spirits of all who heard it. As she grew, Lucy developed a personality as colorful and vibrant as a tapestry. She was fiercely independent, always marching to the beat of her own drum. Lucy's heart, was so full of compassion and kindness, what a testament to the purity of her spirit.

We have so many memories of her to choose from. When Lucy was expecting baby Ari, we had an amazing dance sessions full of laughter and she could definitely move a leg! We remember during her ruracio she sternly warned Auntie Kalekye not to stress Alex at all! Oh yes this was Lucy for sure. She had a unique way of seeing the world that was truly her own. One of the most remarkable things about Lucy was her immense capacity for love and empathy. During her wedding we her Aunties participated in making that day so special for her and it was an honour for us. Those memories are in a special place in our hearts.

Despite her youth, Lucy faced challenges in her life with a resilience and strength that were awe-inspiring. She met these obstacles head-on, never losing her optimism or her ability to find joy in every day. Our relationship with her was a source of love and joy, we felt a special bond with our baby Uti. From the day she was born, she held a special place in our hearts. Watching her grow, sharing in her triumphs and her struggles, was one of the greatest privileges of our life. Lucy's untimely departure has left an indelible mark on our hearts. The pain of her absence is profound, but so too is the love and the memories she leaves behind. Her life, though far too short, was lived with a richness and intensity that many never achieve. As we say goodbye to our Lucy, let us hold on to the love she gave, the lessons she taught us, and the beautiful moments we shared. Let us honor her memory by living our lives with the same courage, passion, and love that she showed every day. Our dear niece Lucy, you were a light in our lives – a beautiful, shining light that will never be extinguished. You will forever be in our hearts, your memory a cherished treasure.

It is hard to make sense of why someone so young, with so much potential and love to give, was taken from us. But instead of dwelling on the unfairness of it all, let's remember the gifts Lucy gave us. She taught us to find joy in every moment. Through her sickness, she taught us to listen, not just with our ears, but with our hearts. And through her actions, she taught us the importance of kindness, compassion, and love. As we say our final goodbyes, let's remember our Lucy for the love she shared, the lives she touched, and the beautiful memories she leaves behind. Let's hold onto her spirit, her zest for life, and her lessons of love. And let her legacy be one of joy, kindness, and boundless love.

Rest in the arms of Jesus, sweet Lucy. You were loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure.

Your loving Aunties.

Friend - Joy

Hey Boo!!.. what's popping? "Always say you're popping" you'd say. Writing this has probably been the hardest thing I have ever had to do in my life but you constantly told me to be tough and to face things as they were. I remember when we first met in 2015, you embodied such grace, elegance and class. Lucy you are and will always be the gold standard of class and I remember telling Alex, "she's too good for you, how did you get her?" but he most definitely proved me wrong. You warmed up to me and after us hanging out a few times we became inseparable.

Our first milestone together was waiting for Ari Tutu to be born and indeed it was an honor and privilege when You and Alex asked me to be her Godmother.

The "Are you guys twins/ sisters" comments started to trickle in and even though we never saw it, it became the bond that was to keep us together till your last day. You welcomed me into your life whole heartedly, your sisters became my sisters, your mum became my mum and your home became my home. So much so I would spend a lot of time at your house more than my own place. To know me is to have known Lucy. My family and friends all had to experience your warm love and they embraced you with so much love. Indeed we were each other's 'handbag' as we often joked..as we would literally go everywhere together as well as enjoy doing nothing together .. The doppelgängers... Our first milestone together was waiting for Ari Tutu to be born and indeed it was an honor and privilege when You and Alex asked me to be her Godmother.

We have laughed together, cried together(well I did most of the crying) but you were always there to wipe my tears away and tell me to toughen up. You taught me so much.. and reminded me constantly to be my very best, that even when things got tough I would make it. I remember always telling you if I could be half as organized as you were I would be just fine. I love how meticulous and keen to detail you were. You literally knew where all the things were.. your purse was always stocked. You were Always thorough and never afraid to speak your mind. You embodied great boldness and strength!!! "Luce, (as I would often call you), you are very very strong..and even when we began this journey last year In August, you were the one reminding me to be strong and that we would be okay." I can't wait to come back and for us to do 1,2,3... "you would tell me.

And without knowing it this journey really brought me closer to God as I really prayed long and hard for your healing and for God's will to be done and indeed He has taken His beautiful Angel back to Himself because Lucy you are beautiful. Both in and out. I will continue to speak about you in present tense because even though our good Lord saw it fit to take you back ,you will forever live in my heart and in my mind rent free because in you I experienced a friendship that became a sisterhood and I love how selfless we were with each other. My real life Twin!! I love how infectious our laughs were so much so we ended up having the same (horrible) laugh. I will miss our daily conversations and how we always knew we could count on each other. I promise to keep your dream alive and your wishes as well and I pray that even as you dance with the angels that you may continue to watch over us.

You are my best friend, my confidant, my prayer partner and my all time favourite personal person.. I will definitely miss dancing with you and everything about you. You always guaranteed those around you a good time and you are exceptionally patient and full of grace and an all round gifted young lady.

Nakupenda sana, Jana, Leo na Milele..

Fare thee well my love till we meet again..

Cousin - Cindy

I wish we had more laughs, I wish we told more stories together, I wish we took more photos together, I wish we had more time. You were a big sister to me and losing you has left a gaping hole. I already miss you so much.

The comfort I have is that you lived a beautiful life and now you're at peace. There's so much I want to tell and show you but I'll keep these stories and gather many more, till we meet again.

Rest in peace big sis.

Lucy, a smile and chuckle.

To know Lucy was to love Lucy. She was our cousin by marriage but our friend by choice.

She had the warmest smile and a unique chuckle which will forever remain engrained in our hearts and thinking about her automatically brings a smile to one's face. We'll remember her quiet and gentle spirit, her kindness, her warmth and when you met her, you were assured of a strong loving embrace - Lucy gave the warmest hugs.

She was always so gracious and always spoke with a smile on her face. When she spoke, it was well thought out and full of sincerity. Lucy valued and cherished family above all else. As a mother, she was nurturing and attentive, always putting Ari's needs above her own. As a wife, she was a devoted partner, providing unwavering support to Alex. She loved everyone around her and it was so admirable how she loved her in-laws particularly her mum in love, our dear aunt Jedida. She had this amazing ability to make everyone feel special and loved. Her presence brought warmth and joy to our gatherings. When you went into her home you were always assured of some of the tastiest meals! She was truly the hostess with the mostest.

Lucy loved life. Boring was not a word you could ever use to describe her. She lived her life with enthusiasm and positivity and even at her weakest, she always smiled and said, "It is well."

And therefore, today we choose to echo Lucy's words that it is well with our soul. We will miss her deeply and we thank God for the precious moments He gave her to us. Rest now Lucy, you fought with courage and positivity. Your memory will live on in our hearts forever.

Colleagues

Today, we gather to honour the memory of Lucy Nzisa-Tutu, a remarkable colleague and friend whom we had the privilege of knowing for nearly a decade. Lucy served as our Business Unit Head, and in this role, she was the epitome of diligence and passion. Her unwavering dedication to her work and her team was truly inspiring. She approached every challenge with a can-do attitude and consistently delivered exceptional results. She was a visionary leader who always sought innovative solutions and encouraged her team to strive for excellence. Her ability to lead with both strength and compassion made her an invaluable asset to our organization.

Beyond her professional achievements, Lucy was a beacon of positivity and warmth. She had an innate ability to lift the spirits of those around her and create an environment where everyone felt valued and motivated. Her infectious aura and genuine care for her colleagues fostered a sense of camaraderie and collaboration that will be deeply missed. Her legacy is one of integrity, kindness, and unmatched commitment to her team and her work. As we remember her today, let us carry forward the lessons she taught us and honour her memory by continuing to strive for the high standards she set. Lucy's impact on our lives and our workplace will never be forgotten.

We pray for the Almighty's grace and comfort upon her family and friends. Lucy Nzisa-Tutu, rest in eternal peace.

Amen.

dhambi za ulimwengu utujalie amani.*

THANKSGIVING

BWANA NAKUSHUKURU

1. Bwana nakushukuru asante, pendo lako kwangu kubwa sana Umenilisha mwili wako na damu yako (Bwana) ili nipate uzima wa milele
(Ewe) Bwana nakushukuru asante
Nitakulipa nini mimi mwokozi wangu (Yesu) kwa mema yote ambayo Wanjalia (ewe) Bwana nakushukuru asante
2. Bwana nashukuru asante, kwani umenilisha mwiliyo
3. Bwana nakushukuru asante, kwani umeninweshwa damuyo
4. Pendo lako kwangu kubwa sana, nami nitakusifu daima

GRAVE SONGS

MASKANI YANGU

*Maskani yangu x2
Maskani yangu ni juu mbinguni x2*

1. Mimi ni mpitaji, dunia si yangu, uzima milele sitapata
(hapa)
2. Uzuri wote hapa, raha zote pia, hizo zote utawacha hapa
(kweli)
3. Mapambo ya dunia, na ajabu zote, ni mfano ulioko mbinguni (kweli)
4. Yesu alipopaa, alisema kuwa, naenda kutengeza makao
(kweli)
5. Safari ifikapo, Bwana akwitapo , hubebi chochote cha dunia
(kweli)

NINATAKA KUINGIA

1. Ninataka kuingia, mjini mwa Mungu Nitashinda nitakaza mwendo nifike Nikishikwa na shida, nikichoka njiani
Yesu unaniambia uningojee
2. Naitwa na Yesu Kristu enzini mwake Nakimbia kukawia hakuna faida
Wote wachelewao hawatapata taji
Mimi sitaki kingine ila uzima
3. Elekeza macho yangu mlangoni pako Niongoze nipe nguvu nikilemewa Ninapojaribiwa, ninaposingiziwa
Yesu unisaidie nisikuache
4. Mkono wako unishike nisinguke Najiona kuwa mnyonge nguvu i kwako Neno lako ee Yesu linanipa uzima
Nikifika nitaimba umeniponya

UNIONGOZA

1. Uniongoza Mwokozi ndipo name ufurahi,
Niendapo pote napo ataniongoza papo
Kuongoza hunishika kwa mkono wa hakika
Nitaandama naye Kristu aniongozaye
2. Pengine ni mashakani nami pengine rahani,
Ni radhi ijayo yote yupo nami siku sote
3. Mkono akinishika kamwe sitanung'unika,
Atakacho niletea ni tayari kupokea
4. Nikiishakazi chini `takwenda huko mbinguni,
Nako nitamtukuza Kristu aliyeongoza

MAISHA YETU NI MAFUPI

1. Maisha yetu ni mafupi
2. Watoto vijana wazee
Kweli hapa duniani Sote tumepungukiwa
Tuishi tukijihadhari na utukufu wako Bwana
Mwokozi yu karibu kuja tuonyeshe njia ya kweli
Ee Bwana twaomba tuokoe (dhambi zetu ni nyingi sana)
Utupe neema Mungu wetu kila siku tukuishie
3. Wingu kuu limetuzingira
4. Nyumbani mwako tumefika Sote tuko hatarini kukuabidu ee Bwana
Kama Yona tumemezwa tuangazie mwanga wako
Naye Yule mwovu shetani tuondoe katika giza.

In Loving Memory of Lucy Nzisa Tutu

'Good people pass away;
the godly often die before their time.
But no one seems to care or wonder why.
No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come.
'For those who follow godly paths will rest in peace when they die.
*Isaiah 57: 1-2 NLT
